Healthy Arts for Seniors 2017-8

ABOUT

Healthy Arts for Seniors is a free photography and story-telling program in Scarborough for seniors aged 55 and over. In a series of fall and spring workshops, participants will explore stories through photography, literature, and story-telling through audio arts. At the end of the program, written, photographic and audio stories produced by the participants will be collected and published in a print and online anthology to be showcased at a launch event.

To register for this program, please type or print clearly in blue or black ink and submit to Scarborough Arts. Applicants must complete ALL fields. Please note that registration for this program is on a first-come first-served basis and this application does not guarantee a position in the program.

Your information is for administrative purposes only and will not be shared with third-party individuals or organizations.
